- 15.2. On issues that need the consent of the members and on which a decision cannot be delayed until the next General Assembly, the Board will ask the consent of the members by letter or email who have to object within fourteen days. Expressing no objection will be taken as an agreement with the proposal.

Article 16. Meetings

- 16.1. The Foundation's Board has to convene at least two times per year. The Chairman shall announce meetings of the Foundation's Board no later than twenty-one days in advance.
- 16.2. Meetings of the Foundation's Board shall also be convened in case at least two members demand so in written form. The request must be addressed to the Chairman.
- 16.3. Members of the Foundation's Board shall be convened by invitation (mail or email), at least twenty-one days in advance. The invitation shall include at least the following details: the date, time, location and agenda of the Board meeting.
- 16.4. Each member of the board of the association shall have one vote. The decisions of the board of the association shall be taken by simple majority. Voting by proxy is not permitted. If the votes are tied, the matter shall be referred to the next board meeting. If the matter does not tolerate any delay, the majority of the board members with EU nationality shall prevail. If this procedure still results in a tie and the issue does not tolerate any delay, the voting weight of the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer is doubled. The board of the association can make decisions only if the majority of board members are present.

Article 17. Minutes

- 17.1. Minutes of the Foundation's Board shall be signed by the Chairman and another member of the Board.
- 17.2. The minutes shall be recorded in a special register to be kept at the office of the Foundation.

SUBCHAPTER IIIc - Chairman, Treasurer, Secretary

Article 18. Chairman

The Chairman, who is part of the Foundation's Board, is elected by the General Assembly. The Chairman conducts the Foundation's Board. The Vice Chairman replaces the Chairman if the Chairman is not present. The Board appoints one of its members as vice Chairman respectively secretary and respectively treasurer.

SUBCHAPTER III d – DIRECTOR

Article 19. Director

The director, who is not part of the Foundation's Board, is appointed by the Foundation's Board. The director is responsible for the daily management and the implementation of the vision, strategy and activities of the Foundation. The director reports to the Foundation's Board and maintains close liaison with ECPM. The Foundation's Board can delegate specific responsibilities and competences to the director.

SUBCHAPTER IIIe – Other Organs of the Foundation

Article 20. Honorary Board

The Foundation's Board may nominate prominent personalities of public life, as well as high-profile and relevant experts and academics as members of the Honorary Board. This Committee serves the academic level of the Foundation. Its further composition and attributes are to be specified if the Foundation's Rules of Internal Regulations.

SUBCHAPTER IIIf – Legal Representation

Article 21. Legal Representation

The association is legally represented by the president or two board members acting jointly. Two of these three board members must be EU citizens. If the chairman is not an EU citizen, he cannot represent the association alone. With respect to day-to-day management, the association is legally represented by the director. For activities related to real estate and transactions exceeding fifty thousand euros (€50,000.00), the representation of the president and two board members is required. Two of these three board members must be nationals of an EU member state.

CHAPTER IV – FINANCIAL ASPECTS

Article 22. Finances for Foundation's activities

The activity of the Foundation shall be financed by subventions as specified in the budget of the European Union, fundraising activities and voluntary contributions of members and donations of other legal and physical persons within the rules for European political foundations.

Members will pay an annually membership fee, according to procedure that will be described in the rules of internal regulations.

Article 23. Accounting year and annual accounts

- 23.1. The accounting year of the Foundation begins on the first day of January and ends on thirty-first day of December of each year.
- 23.2. In cases specified by Law, the General Assembly will appoint an auditor insofar they are not appointed by the European Parliament and determine the remuneration, if any.

Article 24. Administrative and Financial organization and representation, accounting year and annual accounts

- 24.1. The director is responsible for the daily financial organisation, spending and fundraising and therefore the daily administrative representation. The director appoints in consultation with the Board an administrator to conduct the administration while the director remains responsible. The director will inform the Board of the financial developments. The Board has final responsibility as described in article 15.1
- 24.2. The director will sign off spending which will be recorded by the administrator. All expenditure will be conducted in accordance with the rules and guidelines for expenditure for European political foundations. The director can ask the administrator to conduct actual transfers. The administrator will do so after the director has signed for the transfer. The director can do transfers directly within the rules and guidelines for expenditure of funding for European political foundations and article 21 of these statutes. The director can finalise loan agreements to cover the annual budget.
- 24.3. Other staff can do expenditure within an established limit with the sole purpose of arranging travel and stay, meeting rooms and office equipment within the established program of activities. This will be recorded for an individual member of staff in the Chamber of Commerce registration.
- 24.4. The European Parliament is authorised to appoint the auditor. The director and administrator will cooperate with the auditor to establish a final financial report. The financial report will be submitted for approval and determination by the Board and the General Assembly.
- 24.5. The Board remains the final administrative and financial representation of the Foundation. Outside Board Meetings, the Chairman can represent the Board in this regard and/or the Vice Chairman together with the treasurer.

- 24.6. The Financial year will be the same as the calendar year. The board shall issue its annual report at a General Assembly within six months of the end of the association year - save an extension of such term by the General Assembly -, reporting on its management as conducted over the past financial year, under simultaneous submission of a balance sheet and a statement of income and expenditure. After expiry of the said term any member may demand in court that the board report in accordance with the foregoing sentence.

CHAPTER V – DISSOLUTION

Article 25. Dissolution

- 25.1. The Foundation can be dissolved by decision of a competent judicial court, or by the General Assembly, at the initiative of Foundation's members.
- 25.2. Proposal for the dissolution of the Foundation shall be addressed by Foundation's members by the mean of registered letter to Foundation's members to allow for consideration at least two months before the meeting of the General Assembly at which the proposal for a decision is submitted for a vote.
- 25.3. The Foundation can be dissolved by a decision taken by a four fifth (4/5) majority of the votes cast in the General Assembly, when at least two third (2/3) of members are present or represented. Should this last quorum not be met at the first meeting, then a second meeting will be convened which will be allowed to deliberate regardless of the number of members present or represented and in which meeting the foundation can be dissolved by a decision taken by a four fifth (4/5) majority.
- 25.4. A possible positive balance of the dissolved association will be spent on behalf of a public benefit institution, as referred to in Article 5b of the Algemene wet inzake rijksbelastingen (or Legislation in place), with a similar objective or on behalf of a foreign institution that only or almost exclusively aims at the public good and that has a similar objective.

CHAPTER VI – INTERNAL REGULATIONS

Article 26. Rules of Internal Regulations

Rules of Internal regulations of the Foundation will be adopted by the General Assembly upon proposal of the Foundation's Board. Rules of Internal Regulations provide for issues or procedures and internal order not mentioned in these Statutes.

CHAPTER VII – FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 27- Final Provisions

Matters not expressly referred to in these Statutes are subject to the provisions of the Law.
